

COMMUNITY AWARDS' DESCRIPTIONS

Catherine Sinclair Bratty Visual Arts Scholarship

This award will be bestowed upon a graduating student for excellence in Visual Arts. The student may be in either the elective or the major program. This student must be continuing on in the Visual Arts or related field of study at a post-secondary institution. The student will have excelled in developing his or her artistic vision through hard-work and practice, as well as attaining strong academic achievement.

Gail Baddeley Award

This award is for a graduating student whose leadership and commitment have contributed to a caring school environment where young people help their peers. The student will have a strong academic achievement record, will have participated in school activities and be proceeding to university or college.

Guidance Award

This award goes to the student who shows an empathy and compassion for fellow students through their involvement in the school community while maintaining a good academic standing.

John Filion Community Involvement Award

Mr. John Filion who is the Councilor for the City of Toronto, and has donated this award. A Community Involvement award is presented to a graduating student selected by the school. The award is to recognize the contribution of a student who has done something to make the community a better place. The community can be either the school community or the larger community in which the student lives. The award can also be given to a student who has taken an active interest in local government.

Kiwanis Club Award

The North York Branch of the Kiwanis Club is a service club dedicated to meeting the needs of the members of the community. The student must have participated in extra-curricular activities and must have had involvement in community activity. The recipient will be a graduate less than twenty years of age, and in attendance at Haig for at least two years.

Lt. Governor's Community Volunteer Award

This award recognizes exemplary involvement in the community.

North Metro Vocal Sweet Adelines Award

This award is presented to a female vocal Claude Watson music student to who plans to pursue her post-secondary education in Music. The student will have demonstrated a strong academic career as well as a positive attitude.

OSSTF District 12 Award

The student to receive this award is chosen by teachers in the school who has made a significant contribution to the school community.

Rotary Club Award

The Rotary Club is a service whose fund efforts have supported many community activities. The recipient of this award significantly participates in extra-curricular school activities.

University Woman's Club of North York Arts Award

This award is presented to a female student graduating from the Claude Watson program. The recipient for this award has demonstrated excellence in the Arts program and she is proceeding to post-secondary education in the creative arts, and she has not received a large university scholarship.